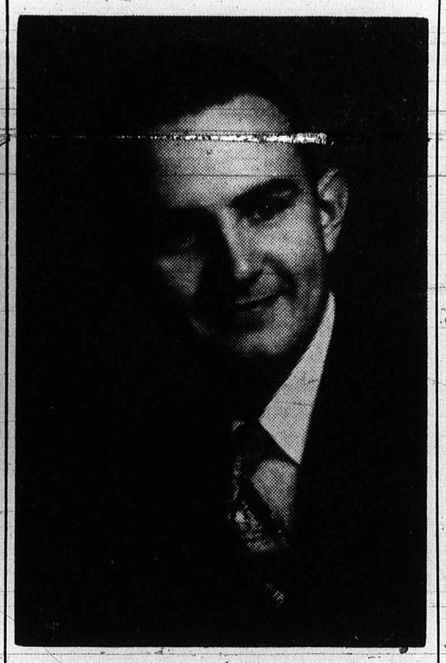
Committees Complete Arrangements For Gala Homecoming Week-end

Miss Deanna Burns, Hammond, Ind., Homecoming date of freshman Tom Brosseau, chosen St. Joe's Queen for-a-Homecoming-weekend.



Homecoming chairman Don Klingenberger, Fort Wayne senior, upon whose shoulders rests the activities of the coming weekend.

By Jim Thompson

A full schedule of activities has been arranged for St. Joseph's 1953 Homecoming celebration on Saturday, Oct. 17. Chairman Don Klingenberger has announced a complete program for the weekend, including a pep rally, barndance, the annual Homecoming dance, the crowning of the Homecoming queen, and the St. Joe-Butler football game. St. Joseph's alumni, parents and friends of the students will be guests of the college during the ceremonies.

The queen for the 1953 Homecoming is Miss Deanna Burns of Hammond, Indiana. She was chosen on the basis of her photograph entered, with others, in the Homecoming Queen contest. Named as the queen's attendants were Miss Jo Ann Bonin of Chicago, Illinois, and Miss Marie St. Cyr of Chicago, Illinois. The queen will be officially crowned as part of the ceremonies during the halves of the football game. Judges for the contest were the Rev. Henry Martin, the Rev. Daniel Schaefer, Mr. Richard Kilmer, Mr. Salvatore Pupo, and Mr. John Ruble.

Pep Rally

The opening activity of the weekend will be the pep rally held by the Sophomore class. The Glee Club will perform at this rally, which will mark the climax of the frosh initiation for 1953. Short speeches will be given by Coach Pawlowski and the co-captains for the Butler game. Following the pep session a barndance will be held for the students and their dates. The dance is being sponsored by the Monogram Club with George Kuhn acting as chairman.

Decorations Planned

Robert Pitt, chairman of the decorating committee, is preparing the fieldhouse for the Homecoming dance Saturday evening. Vine-covered walls, trellises, and fountains will form the basic pattern for the decorations. Members of the committee are Anthony Smith, Jack Morrison, and Edward Fox.

The decorations for the campus are being provided by the inter-hall committee under the direction of chairman Maurie Garvey. Others on the committee are: John Donnelly, Joe Houser, Sam Governale, Ed Joyce, Charlie Zak, Jerry Walke, and Harold Pennington.

Orchestra and Combo

The orchestra of Jimmy Stier will provide the music for the Homecoming dance. This orchestra has had previous engagements at Purdue and Indiana Universities, and numerous other engagements throughout the midwest.

Following the dance Willie Jones and his combo will play in Raleigh Hall until three A. M. The bid for the Homecoming dance will be $4.00, and admission to Raleigh Hall has been set at $3.00 a couple.

Freshman Candidates Begin Campaign

The Freshman Class will hold the first meeting of their political campaign on Tuesday night, Oct. 20, in the auditorium. This meeting will consist of the introduction of the candidates and the various campaign speeches. The campaign for the four Freshman offices will begin on Oct. 21 and will run until Sunday night, Oct. 28. The actual voting will take place on the 29th. Winners of the election will be announced at a meeting held by the class that night.

Four parties have registered for the elections. They are as follows: Joecrats: President—Fred Andres, New Albany, Ind.; vice-president—Hal Newman, Oak Park, Ill.; secretary—Phil Battaglia, Chicago, Ill.; treasurer—Vince Battaglia, Chicago, Ill.

Progressors: President—Donald Backley, Chicago, Ill.; vice president, Grant Shuflitowski, Chicago, Ill.; secretary—Brian McCarthy, Woodstock, Ill.; treasurer—Gerald Pabst, Oak Park, Ill.

Phase, Stuff Capture 1953 Top Awards

The Publications Department and all it's co-workers of 1952-53's Phase and Stuff staffs received as an acknowledgement of their hard work, top honorary awards in the Catholic School Press Association, and Associated Collegiate Press respectively.

Stuff was granted an All-American rating on the basis of top news sources; news writing and editing; headlines, typography and makeup and department pages and special features. All combined received a top grade of 1050, the highest possible score. And in a letter from the Associated Collegiate Press it was stated that "The judges want to emphasize that the All-American rating is reserved for truly outstanding papers. First class papers can be proud of the rating as representing a high level of achievement."

Phase, the college annual, received an All-Catholic rating with grades of excellent in originality, style, subject matter and effectiveness, plus an equally high rating in almost all other material graded.

As a token of their superior rating the Phase staff received a certificate of award. Stuff will be on display at the American Collegiate Press Review at the hotel Morrison in Chicago, on October 15-17. These ratings are sponsored by the Associated Collegiate Press, in conjunction with Marquette University.

200 Make Trip To Terre Haute

Approximately 200 students traveled to Terre Haute, Ind., under the sponsorship of the Student Council, for the St. Joe-Indiana State football game, and a mixer with the girls from St. Mary's of the Woods, also of Terre Haute. Following the game, a buffet supper was served at St. Mary's and a mixer followed later in the evening. Music for the dance was provided by Ron Gambla and his orchestra.

The next mixer here at St. Joe's is tentatively scheduled for Oct. 31. The girls from St. Mary's of the Woods will be the guests at this dance.

Two Upperclassmen, Four Frosh Win CP Casting

Four freshmen, a sophomore, and a senior comprise the cast of the Columbian Players' first '53-'54 offering, "Home of the Brave." The castings were announced Oct. 1 by the CP's new director, Mr. Lee O'Connell, after tryouts the evening before.

Frosh Frank DeSana copped the war play's lead, Coney, with veteran Bob Gregoire as Mingo, Ed Stepan as TJ, soph Jack Carlson as Finch, Terry Flynn as the Major, and Ed Hebda as the Doctor.

The play itself, a comedy-drama in three acts, was adapted from a Broadway success to an Oscar-winning movie. It concerns the struggles of a Jewish boy against discrimination in the army.

Mr. O'Connell stated that he intends to present the drama sometime between Thanksgiving and Christmas. Rehearsals are being planned for every day, with the weekends open; the first practice began October 6.

Because of the necessity for rapid changes of scene, the set will be constructed in three parts, all present on the stage at once. The basic set will be a jungle scene in the background. This will be separated by a scrim from the downstage area, which will house two sets — a clearing on a Pacific isle and the office of an army doctor.

Scene changes will be indicated by stage blackouts; the stage curtain will be used only between acts.

Bill Walker has been named stage manager for the production, with Ralph Seidl on lights and Jim Thompson on makeup.

Mr. O'Connell also announced plans for a recording of Shakespeare's "Merry Wives of Windsor" and scenes from "Falstaff," for Shakespeare classes. Supporting the CP actors in this project will be actresses from St. Xavier's College, Chicago. Rehearsals for these readings should start about October 24, Mr. O'Connell said, with the actual recordings to take place approximately a week later.

Marine Officers To Be Here For PLC Interviews

Representatives from the Marine Officers Procurement Office will visit the campus on Oct. 15 and 16 to interview prospective candidates for the Marine Platoon Leaders Class Program. The PLC program is an officer candidate program designed to train the high caliber college man to assume responsibility as a commissioned officer in the Marine Corps upon graduation.

Training in the PLC program is limited to two summer periods, each of six weeks duration. No uniform, drill, or military classwork is required during the school year. If selected for the platoon leaders class, the candidate in the Marine Corps Reserve and will immediately receive a temporary promotion to the rank of corporal.

The Junior Course and Senior Course (first and second summer) are held at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Virginia. This course provides practical and theoretical military instructions with the emphasis upon tactics of squad and platoon. Weapons instructions and firing constitute an important part of the course. It includes instructions in crew-served weapons, with the emphasis on the tactics and techniques of the platoon and the company.

If you are an undergraduate at an accredited college or university, pursuing a course of study in a field other than medicine, dentistry, or theology, art or music, you are eligible for enrollment in the platoon leaders class.

The candidate must, however, meet these specific requirements: a) the candidate must be at least 17 years old at the time of enrollment and not more than 26 years old at the date of comission. b) the candidate must be a citizen of the United States. c) the candidate must be enrolled as a full-time student at an accredited college or university; or a high school graduate who has registered at such an institution. d) the candidate must be able to meet the prescribed physical standards.

Although a candidate is accepted for this program, he may be dropped from the program at any time if his scholastic grades falls below a C-average.

Fr. Gilbert Esser Elevated To Lieutenant Colonel In U.S. Army Reserves

Rev. Gilbert F. Esser, St. Joseph's Latin instructor, has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army. An official letter from President Eisenhower, received on Oct. 1, confirmed the promotion.

Fr. Esser was first commissioned in 1935, and reached the rank of captain in 1941. During World War II, he served first as regimental and then as assistant division chaplain for the 79th Infantry Division. Later he was transferred to the Replacement Depot System and spent two years overseas, returning to the United States in 1946 as a major.

Fr. Esser recently served a term of active duty as a chaplain at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., where he won the commendation of the commanding officer for his long hours of duty.

During the past summer, Fr. Esser received wide recognition in his parish at Medaryville, Ind. The town celebrated its centennial, and Father was asked to write the history of the town. It was published under the title "The Tale of One City" as a souvenir of the centennial.

An historical pageant was also prepared by Father Esser for the centennial. The people of the parish served as actors for the pageant, which was witnessed by more than 400 people.

Seniors Give Rally

The senior class presented its pep rally and skit, Sound Off, Friday, October 3, prior to the St. Joseph-Valparaiso football game. The performance was based on a similar skit presented in 1951. Featured numbers were: "One Lousy A" by Buel Adams, "Sound Off" by Bernie Boff, "Collegeville Choo-Choo" by Ken Ryan, and two numbers sung by the entire cast.

Parents' Clubs Hold Reception

The St. Joseph's Mothers and Fathers Clubs are going to hold a reception for the parents of the new students of the college on Wednesday, Oct. 14. The reception will be held at the South Shore Country Club in Chicago at 8:00 p.m. The Rev. Raphael Gross, President of the college will preside over the reception. The Rev. Richard Baird is the moderator of the two clubs.

The Mothers Club will hold their first meeting of the year on Oct. 24 in the dining room of Marshall Fields in Chicago. Election officers for the coming year will be held. The first meeting of the Fathers Club will be announced shortly.

Discussion Precedes Council Meeting

The Student Council held its first publicized meeting Tuesday, Oct. 6, in the Noll Hall lounge. Preceding the meeting a definite decision was made on the status of the student disciplinary counselors and the hall prefects, and an agreement was drawn up between the two.

The regular meeting began with committee reports, at which time the newly formed inter-hall committee announced its intentions of decorating the campus for the Homecoming. The members of this committee are Ed Joyce, Ray Ramirez, Sam Governale, Joe Houser, Harold Pennington, Jerry Walke, John Donnelly, Charlie Zak, with Maurie Garvey acting as chairman.

The meeting continued with action for an appropriation for the IM bowling league to lower the cost of the program to the individual bowler, and a decision to acquire more Coke machines for the campus was also reached.

It was also decided to procure a trophy case, and to inscribe the names of last year's championship basketball team on the trophy. Telephone booths were also recommended for Seifert Hall.

Youth With Faith Theme of '53 Week

The third annual National Catholic Youth Week will be held Oct. 18-25, throughout the United States. This week has been set aside for the purpose of focussing the attention of the nation on the youth programs in America. The week is being sponsored by the Youth Department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference. The theme of the 1953 Youth Week is "America's Hope — Youth With Faith."

It is no secret that a nation's hope lies in its youth. The fate of any nation lies in its potential doctors, lawyers, politicians, scientists, teachers, etc. The leaders of any country look to the coming generation for the social, economical, and political improvements that will benefit the country. This is true, not only in the far away countries of Europe and Asia, but here in America as well. The responsibility for a strong America tomorrow, rests squarely on the shoulders of the college student of today.

But how many college students are aware of this fact? How many here on our campus are prepared to lead a country such as America? Our country is a large and powerful nation. In a few years it may be even larger and more powerful. It is now, and will be, not just an average nation, but rather, a great nation. And for this reason, it will require the leadership, not of average men, but of great men. Its administrators, its scientists, its doctors, its generals will all have to be the best in their respective fields. America now holds a position in which nothing but the best will be sufficient for her safety. And these extraordinary men, the best in the world, must come from the campuses of the colleges of the United States. Probably some will come from this campus, from this present group of students.

How can we be prepared for this near-Herculean task of running such a great country? We must have faith in four basic principles. We must have faith in God; faith in our country; faith in the family; and faith in ourselves.

We are not asked to have faith in these things, but rather we have the obligation to believe in these fundamentals. It is something we owe, not to ourselves primarily, but to our neighbors and our country.

For the sake of clarification let us take a brief look at these four faiths. Needless to say, faith in God is necessary for a sound and successful country. Where else but from God can we derive the fundamental moral principles necessary for a lasting civilization.

To live in a country, to defend a country, and to work for its betterment, without having faith in the country would indeed be ridiculous. Therefore faith in America is required for all of us. To recognize that this country has acknowledged God as the supreme authority in its various forms of governments, and to be proud of this fact —this is faith in our country.

The basic institution of any successful civilization is the family. It is the one necessary ingredient for the stability of the country. The necessity of faith in the family must be realized by all of us.

The final principle is faith in ourselves. There can be no mistaking this necessity. We can do nothing to strengthen America without first having confidence in our abilities and our talents.

So, then, in following the theme of the Youth Week, we can see that our nation's hope lies in its youth, and in "Youth with Faith" lies the hope for a brighter tomorrow.

BILLSTUFF

By Bill Feely

As I sit here in Drexel, listening to the final game of the World Series while purposefully avoiding those foul creations, commonly called books, I accidentally discover, amidst the usual refuse, the old typewriter ready and rarin' to go. The reason is obvious, for once again it's time for Billstuff to make an appearance. The deadline is near at hand, the editor is in an uproar, the printer is anxious, and the moderator can't sleep.

All are as confused as those three Valpo Crusaders who arrived twelve hours early for that disastrous game, armed with paint and other sundry supplies, only to be met by a host of Pumites led by John Quinn, John (Sabu) Wisler, Don Merki, and Matt Herriges. The Valpo stalwarts were interrogated in Hugh McAvoy's room, though several anxious St. Joe men inadvertently entered the wrong room and pushed the door open so violently that peacefully sleeping Jack Heinen was thrown out of bed. The three claimed that "Beat Valpo" signs were found in abundance about their campus.

Oddity of the week: One of Valparaiso's University residence halls possessing two doorbells, one marked "Men," the other marked "Women."

Mr. James Bogan, ex-registrar, is now an assistant broker with the firm of Merrill, Lynch, Fenner, and Bean. Joe Kukoy (52) is teaching biology, and general science while serving as assistant football and basketball coach at Calvert High School, Tiffin, Ohio. Among the alumni on campus for the Valpo week-end were Tom Powell (55) and June grads (53) Bob Underwood, Bob Kunka, Gene Ziemba, Bill Heniff, and Don Netols.

Moviegoers, Attention: In its last issue, Stuff, upon introducing its movie menu, advertised a picture starring Bing Crosby. Obviously the reason for this was the crooner's increased popularity. The ironic twist to this tale of woe is that the picture listed didn't show on the date mentioned. Oh, the pitiful life of a proof reader. Also of some note is the fact that the theater in Wolcott, Ind., (20 miles southeast of the campus) offers free popcorn to its patrons.

As the chapel bells struck midnight a commotion was heard in upper West Seifert. It seems as if frosh Bob Fox was suddenly inundated with a pail of ye olde H2O. At the same time Father Schaefer was visiting with student prefects Jerry Bednarkiewicz and Ray Sarlitto, who are still waiting for their ceiling to collapse due to a slight flaw in the plaster. Father's comment was: "He probably deserved it."

The general consensus of opinion is that when Mrs. McCullough took over as head dietician, she must have misplaced Miss Skinner's secret recipe, the old favorite, chili soup.

Odds'n Ends: Ed Linskey and Pete Fenlon drilling future Marines at Drexel . . . Frosh Joe Brunehardt, one member of a family of twenty-one . . . Ed Joyce with his right arm in a sling . . . Bill Zimmer presented with a three-fold birthday present before the Valpo game while being serenaded by frosh bearing candles . . . A hockey game in the Drexel court after the senior pep rally . . . Frosh Grant Shuflitowski, mysterious possessor of a large mirror of the kind used in bowling alleys . . . The Doherty brothers monopolizing the business ad. classes . . . Junior Frank Socha protecting terrorized frosh from the onslaught of the sophs . . . Ed Bozymski, Bob (Monk) Brandt, and Bob Michalski trying in vain to find a refuse can on third floor Drexel since their wastebasket (filing cabinet as they call it) has long since overflown . . . Econ prof. Gomez discovering that his Government and Business textbook is quite vague. Tempus fugit and I must close. I leave you with this parting thought: No matter how much you struggle and strive, you'll never get out of this world alive.

'Sarge', Night Patrolman Guards Collegeville

by Roger Uecker

While most of the students and faculty are peacefully sleeping, Chester Sargent, St. Joe's lone policeman, is busy at work. From 8:00 o'clock each evening until 4:30 the following morning he is busy patroling the campus, on the alert for fires, prowlers, and stray students. More than once he has used his .38 revolver to protect the college farms from thieves and stray dogs.

Sarge, as he is known to everyone on the campus, was born and raised in Lowell, Ind. Before coming to St. Joe's, three years ago, he was yard foreman for the Rensselaer Lumber Company. Mr. Sargent, who is fifty years old, is married and the father of six children, ranging in age from four to twenty-seven years.

His duties as college policeman consist of making the rounds of all the college buildings to be sure there is no danger of fire, or no unauthorized person prowling about. Twice each night, Sarge checks each hall. One occasion he stopped a serious fire from developing.

Sarge likes his work. The toughest part of the job, he claims, was getting used to sleeping days. Although his wife occasionally complains about his seven day a week schedule, Sarge doesn't seem to mind. The Collegeville custodian claims that the students are, for the most part, co-operative, and help to make his job easier. As Sarge says, "Once we get acquainted we don't have any trouble." For the freshmen, however, he has one word to the wise, "Don't walk in the middle of the road."

Songfest at Homecoming

Junior Don McLean has recently joined president Elmer Molchan and vice-president George Kuhn as an officer in the St. Joseph's Glee Club. McLean will occupy the position of secretary-treasurer, replacing Jim Murphy, who did not return to school this semester.

The Homecoming pep rally will mark the first appearance of the St. Joe singers. Highlighting the appearance will be the introduction of an octet which has recently been formed. Members of the octet are: Frank Molson and Joe Willikens, first tenors; Bob Gregoire and George Liebforth, second tenors; Charles Rohan and Edward Kern, first basses; and John Tobin and Tom McNulty, second basses.

Dean At NCEA

Rev. Walter T. Pax, Dean of the College, attended the Executive Committee Meeting of the National Catholic Education Association at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago, on Monday, Oct. 12.

The following day he served as a member of the group which has the responsibility for planning the spring meeting of the Midwest unit of the national organization. Father Pax was elected to the Executive Committee last spring.

LCC Plans '53 Program

The Lake County Club resumed activity this year with its first meeting on Sept. 21. A program for the coming year was set up, including both business and social aspects. Meetings will be held on the second Monday of every month in the Noll Hall lounge at 8:00 p.m. The members will also attend Mass and Communion in a body on the second Tuesday of each month.

Plans are being made for a dance to be held during the semester vacation. Another dance may possibly be held after the St. Joe-Great Lakes basketball game in Hammond, Ind., on December 18. Elmer Molchan, president, urges all students living in the Lake County vicinity to join the club.

Joe Barnett Bosco Prexy

Joe Barnett, Peru, Ind., soph, was elected as president of the Don Bosco Club Monday evening by unanimous vote of the servers' club members. Barnett ran unopposed.

Declining a third consecutive term as club president was George Kuhn, Detroit senior. Kuhn received the vice-president's post, an honorary position, also by unanimous vote.

Dick Obergfell, Indianapolis sophomore and STUFF sports editor, won the nod for the secretarial honors, defeating Buel Adams by one vote in a runoff. All three officers have been members of the club every year that they have been at St. Joseph's.

The club's moderator, the Rev. Norman G. Schmock, addressed the club briefly, urging the members to encourage friends to enter.

IHC Chooses Head For Coming Term

William Froembgen, St. Joseph senior from Arlington Heights, Ill., has been chosen as president of the Inter-hall Committee. Froembgen, who was chosen by a majority vote at a recent meeting of the committee, is the president of the History Club.

The duties of the chairman consist of acting as a laison between the various clubs on the campus, and to integrate their activities of the clubs.

Also a result of the meeting was the creation of a new office, a subchairmanship, the holder of which assumes such duties as are delegated to him.

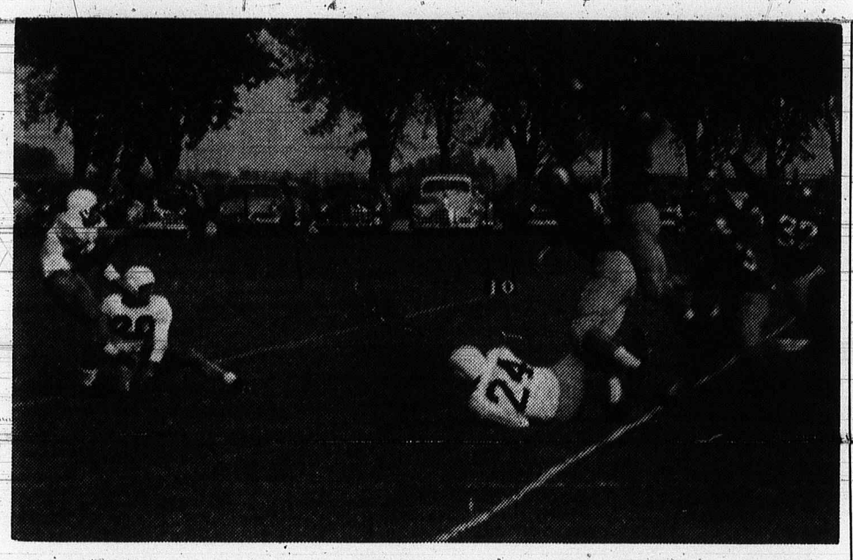
St. Joe Pumas Fail To Halt Last Half State Surge



Point number seven for the Pumas against Valparaiso goes sailing through the crossbars via the magic toe of quarterback Bill Zimmer, who has yet to miss this year. Dave Krigbaum is teeing the pigskin, while Paul Danke on the ground sacrifices himself to the Crusader onslaught. Unfortunately, Zimmer's PAT toe had no more action that day, as St. Joe went down, 45-7.

Valpo Drops Pumas 45 - 7 In ICC Tilt

On Oct. 3, the Valparaiso Crusaders visited the St. Joe campus and outclassed the fighting Pumas to the tune of 45-7.

Early in the game, Valpo halfback, Roger Rebber, opened the scoring with a 26 yard dash around right end. The Crusaders then took advantage of two fumbles by quarterback Bill Zimmer to score twice more in the opening period. Bob Lavender then produced the only chance for the St. Joe fans to cheer when he raced 30 yards around end for a touchdown. The extra point was added by Zimmer. The Crusaders added their fourth touchdown in the second quarter on a 36 yard pass from Bob Mirich to end Gerry Raach. The half ended with Valpo on top, 26-7.

In the second half, Valparaiso's strong reserves took over, and added three more touchdowns while holding the Pumas scoreless. Early in the third period, Valpo's freshman halfback, Paul Naumann, scored two touchdowns, one on a two yard plunge and the other on a 16 yard end run. The final tally of the afternoon came on a six yard end run by Valpo halfback, Gorden Helms, after a 52 yard run by Naumann had set up the score.

The game was hard fought throughout, and frequent injuries occurred on both sides. Ray Ramirez, sophomore halfback from Springfield, Ill., suffered a slight concussion and was forced to miss the Indiana State game. However, the hard-running halfback should be ready for action against Butler. John St. Mary, freshman guard from Gary, Ind., is sidelined with a leg injury suffered in the Valpo game, but he too should be ready for the Butler contest.

For the Pumas, it was the first defeat under the new coach, Joe Pawlowski, who guided the team to an earlier conquest of St. Ambrose.

It was Homecoming last Saturday for Indiana State, and they celebrated in grand style by dropping the Pumas 23-14. It was the second straight setback for the St. Joe eleven.

For a while it looked as if St. Joe would bring home its first conference win in two seasons. Dave Krigbaum took the opening kick-off on the ten and moved the ball to the 40. But Glenn Tyler, State halfback, intercepted a Bill Zimmer pass to halt the Puma attack. State then moved the ball to the St. Joe two yard line, only to lose the ball on a fumble. Zimmer kicked out of danger, but again the Sycamores roared into Puma territory. This time they fumbled in the end zone to lose a golden scoring opportunity.

Following a St. Joe kick, State fumbled again and Ed Linskey recovered on the State 29. Zimmer then hit Merle Effing with a 17 yard pass and two plays later "Zim" drove over for the score. St. Joe kicked to State and on the second play from scrimmage, a 65 yard pass play netted State six points. Arvin Brewer added the extra point and the score was tied at 7-7.

Late in the second period, Cal Kania set up a Puma score by recovering a fumble deep in State territory. Frosh fullback, Charlie Hibbner, then went 14 yards off tackle for the score. Zimmer added the extra point and the half time score was St. Joe 14, State 7.

The first half was dominated by the magnificent Puma line play that time and again stopped the speedy State backs.

St. Joe had a scoring opportunity early in the second half as they moved the ball to the State two yard line on a series of running plays. But a Zimmer aerial was intercepted by Tyler who ran 93 yards to the Puma 7. Fullback Arvin Workman then plunged over and Brewer knotted the score at 14-14. Two minutes later an intercepted pass set up Brewer's 25 yard field goal. Brewer ended the scoring with a one yard plunge in the fourth period.

St. Joe	7	7	0	0	14
State	0	7	10	6	23

The ICC standings are as follows:

	W	L
Butler	2	0
Valpo	2	1
State	2	1
Evansville	1	2
Ball State	0	1
St. Joseph	0	2

Pumatters

By Dick Obergfell

Homecoming 1953! This is the game we want to win. St. Joe hasn't won a homecoming game since 1951. The Pumas will also be out to avenge a 33-0 route handed them by Butler last year. The Pumas have already bettered last year's record by tripping Ambrose 14-7 in the season opener, but that's not enough. We want a winning season and this is the game to start us on the victory trail.

Butler, co-sharer of the ICC crown, will invade Collegeville with a 3-0 record. Coach Tony Hinkle will bring 12 lettermen, including Norm Ellenberger, Fred Davis, and Ralph London, all of whom placed on the All Conference squad last year. Two of the Bulldogs' victories were over ICC foes. They stopped Evansville 27-0 in their season opener, and downed Ball State 35-7 two weeks later.

Although Butler has a fine running attack with fullback Leroy Thompson and half back Norm Ellenberger combined with the passing of Fred Davis, an upset is not impossible.

The Puma offense is improving with each game. Buck Lavender showed some fine running in the Valpo game in scoring our only touchdown, and Bill Zimmer can still be considered one of the best passers in the league. But the loss of scat back Ray Ramirez, who was injured in the Valpo game, will be felt dearly by the Pumas.

This will also be the last Homecoming game for seniors Fred Handler, Ed Linskey, John Thorpe, Bill Zimmer, and Jim Noll. Let's make this a winning celebration, so get behind the team and Beat Butler.

Butler Bulldogs Here For '53 Homecoming Encounter

by Bob Companik

The Butler Bulldogs from Indianapolis wlil provide the opposition for the Pumas in their 1953 Homecoming game, this Saturday. So far this season, Butler has won three games while losing none, in contrast to the Pumas record of one win and two defeats. Butler's victims this season have been Evansville, 27-0; Wabash, 24-20; and Ball State, 35-7.

Coach Tony Hinkle of Butler has about half of his 1952 co-championship team returning. Norm Ellenberger and Fred Davis will carry the backfield burden for Butler, with the help of a sensational new fullback, Leroy Thompson, a six foot, 190 pound freshman. The line will have Ralph London, Leo Mahoney, and Chuck Baltin to supply the needed experience.

The Pumas who have defeated St. Ambrose, and lost to Valpo and Indiana State in their first three encounters, have been plagued by injuries as they were in the 1952 campaign. Halfback Ray Ramirez, "the Spanish Flash" and guard John St. Mary are still undecided dressers for the Homecoming tilt.

Although St. Joe has dropped its last two Homecoming games, this record is not affecting the young Puma grid machine. They are a determined team of string breakers as they proved in the opening game of the season.

Xavierites Start

The Xavier Hall football season opened recently, as John Kalicky's powerhouse squad rolled over the team captained by Gene Torisky. Outgained by 20 yards, Kalicky and his hard charging team capitalized on the breaks and captured a 6 to 0 victory.

Following the win over Torisky's squad, Kalicky's team once more squeezed out a victory, this time over the fighting eleven of Clyde Simon. This win left the two teams in a tie for first place.

IM Football Nears Half

by Dick Obergfell

The intramural season is well on its way as the first round of football draws to a close. The first round will be followed by a double elimination tourney to decide the school champion. The champs of each league will tangle to decide a school champion.

A strong Puma team holds down the initial spot in the all-freshman American league. John Tully, Glenn Murphy, and Gene Eifrid led the Pumas to a 13-7 win over the Greencaps, for their fifth straight win. It was the Greencaps first loss. The Pumas have a 5-0 record while the Greencaps and Warriors hold down second place with identical 3-1 marks.

Two freshman teams are combined with the upperclassmen in the six team National league. The passing of Gus Pasquini to Don Merki, combined with the running of Smoky Smolar and George Kuhn have kept the Indians in the top spot. Dick Dwinell's throwing has enabled the Unanimous to hold second place with a 3-1 record. The second round playoff and the inter-hall tourney will be finished by the Thanksgiving recess. The standings are as follows:

AMERICAN LEAGUE

A 23 team league will highlight the bowling season this year. The teams are divided into three separate leagues with games held on Tuesday afternoon, Tuesday night, and Wednesday afternoon. The Maple Lanes Bowling alley will present awards to the winning team, the most improved team, and a sportsmanship trophy. There will also be the customary school awards.

The five highest individual scores each week will represent St. Joe in the Midwest Intercollege Bowling Conference.

An all frosh soccer league will begin this Friday. There will be nine teams with a double elimination tourney at the close of the season.

The league standings are:

Simon	2	1	0
Kalicky	2	1	0
Torisky	1	1	0
Falter	1	1	1

You Can Plan A Campus Follow This Easy Recipe

Men of St. Joe! The newly formed Building and Grounds Committee, under the direction of the Rev. John Lefko, asks your help in planning the position of the proposed additions to the campus. The buildings are to be built, but where? The committee, therefore, asks for your personal opinion on the site of the following buildings:

1—Bennett Hall
2—Proposed Hall No. 2
3—Proposed Hall No. 3
4—Proposed Hall No. 4
5—Health Service Building
6—Campus Activities Building
7—Lay Faculty Housing
8—Faculty Car Port (open garage)
9—Priest Faculty Housing
10—Parking Facility
11—Class or Laboratory Building

The committee would like you to project your thinking into the future and attempt to lay out a campus that could be completed in the years to come. In preparing your plan of the future campus keep in mind the location of the powerhouse because of utilities and maintenance. Also, in your plan of the campus, Xavier Hall should not be surrounded.

The college has two natural boundaries, Highway 53 on the east, and Sparling Ave., (the cow barn road) on the west. These must also be taken into consideration in your plan. The swamp area just west of Science Dorm will not hold any footings or foundations without tremendous additional cost. However, directly west of the swamp area, there is desirable and sufficient area for a hall.

Sometime in the future a map, similar to the one pictured with this article will be distributed to the student body. Upon this map, the students are asked to mark their plans of the campus. The marking is to be done in ink or in red pencil, and it is requested that the maps be marked clearly. In inserting the locations of the proposed buildings, use the numbers with which these buildings have been listed in this article.

It would also facilitate the work of the committee if you would express your opinion as to the order in which these buildings should be constructed. If you have such an opinion, please include it with the maps when they are collected. Plans for the collection of the completed maps will be revealed at the time they are made available to the student body. Also, if you have any ideas as to the name of the proposed hall No. 2 please include this with the map. This is in the event that there is no donor to merit the honor of having the hall named after him.

The plans of the campus need not be original, as ideas may be obtained from maps of other campuses.

The members of the Building and Grounds Committee, in charge of this project are Rev. Francis A. Hehn, Rev. Joseph A. Otte, Rev. John Lefko, Rev. John Sheehan, Rev. Richard P. Baird, Rev. Daniel Schaefer, Mr. Richard F. Scharf, and Mr. Michael Davis.

Monogram Plan Reorganized

Recently, the Student Athletic Committee, composed of John Quinn, Dick Obergfell, and John Volz, met with the faculty Athletic Committee for the purpose of clarifying the requirements necessary for monograms. The meeting was called because of the indefinite system of awarding athletic monograms in the past years.

The committees decided that the following requirements will regulate the awarding of monograms in the future:

1) A player must participate in at least sixteen quarters of an eight game schedule, or eighteen quarters of a nine game schedule.
2) An injured player that might have received a letter if he had completed the season, must have played in at least eight quarters prior to his injury. However, if a senior is hurt and unable to finish the season, he will be awarded a monogram regardless of the number of quarters he has to his credit.

These rules will be strictly enforced, and under no circumstances will any exceptions be made.

The Dwenger Mission Unit, under the moderation of the Rev. Clement J. Kuhns, held its first meeting Sept. 27 in Xavier Hall.

New Dorm In Offing; Committee Formed

The need for additional housing facilities on the campus has initiated a unique program in the history of the college. The newly-formed Building and Grounds Planning Committee has been chosen to conduct a fund-raising campaign among the Catholics of the Diocese of Lafayette, with the intention of erecting a new dormitory. This new building will provide living quarters for 98 students and two prefects.

The plans for the structure are now being drawn by Naess & Murphy, architects for the Prudential Building in Chicago. The cost of the building will be approximately $200,000. Since there are more than 43,000 Catholics in the diocese of Lafayette, a contribution of five dollars from each would assure the entire cost of the residence hall.

The building will be named after Bishop John Bennett, an alumni of the college, and the first ordinary of the diocese in which the college is located.

In answer to a plea of Rev. John Lefko, chairman of the committee, 54 students have volunteered their services in aiding the program. The students will perform various clerical duties, and will assist in the mailing of leaflets to the various parishes throughout the dioceses.

Weekly Convos Instruct Again

A series of weekly student assemblies has been scheduled for the current scholastic year. These assemblies will consist of lectures or discussions on various subjects by several of the professors here at St. Joseph's. As pointed out in the first assembly the topics of these discussions need not be religious, but will be on topics chosen to hold the interest of the student, and also topics that will benefit the student.

The moderator of this plan is the Rev. Henry Martin, who holds the position of Coordinator of Student Activities here on the campus.

Fr. Martin has announced that these conferences or assemblies will be held on Tuesday afternoons from two until three o'clock. Allowances have been made in the class schedule of the college to insure an opening on everyone's schedule at this time. The moderator also announced that there will be weeks when this assembly will not be held. Students are requested to watch the daily bulletin for the actual dates of the assemblies. These assemblies are compulsory for all students.
